As we welcome a new season, I invite you to share in the creative learning and musical growth of our community. Through engaging lectures, inspiring master classes, and marvellous concerts with renowned visitors, this season promises rich opportunities to experience the transformative power of music. Our continued engagement beyond the Faculty and values of equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging remain at the forefront of our work. We hope you will join our vibrant musical community.

— Ellie M. Hisama
Dean and Professor of Music
