

Faculty of Music
University of Toronto

CUPE Local 3902 Unit 3 Job Posting

Posting Date: August 8, 2024

Course Number and Name: MUS1149H Hip Hop and the City

Course Description: A multi-disciplinary graduate course that will use Hip-Hop music and culture as a lens to explore historical urban issues; as a medium to think about how urban issues shape cultural expression and how culture shapes cities; and finally, as a platform for students to develop innovative solutions to critical urban challenges of today. Students will acquire a solid grounding in hip-hop music and culture, and a deeper knowledge of how it relates to critical urban issues of the 20th/21st century.

Class Schedule: Wednesdays 1–4 pm in the Fall Term, September to December 2024

Salary: $10,000 to be shared equally between two instructors, one an expert in urban issues and the other an artist and/or scholar of hip-hop.

Estimated Course Enrollment: 15

TA support: no

Qualifications: Graduate degree, PhD preferred. Mastery of the subject area related to the course description above. Experience teaching a graduate course at the university level or direct experience as an artist or practitioner in the genre of Hip-Hop.

Duties: Define course objectives and materials; provide clear guidelines on course requirements and regulations; teach classes as scheduled; administer and evaluate student assignments; prepare and submit final grade in accordance with policy. Maintain reasonable hours of student consultation outside scheduled class hours.

Closing Date: August 12, 2024

To be considered for this position, a letter of application and Curriculum Vitae must be submitted by the closing date to:

Daphne Tan
Associate Dean, Academic & Student Affairs
Associate Professor, Music Theory
Faculty of Music, University of Toronto

A complete application includes your responses to the application form and a copy of your most current Curriculum Vitae; click here to apply.

This job is posted in accordance with the CUPE 3902 Unit 3 Collective Agreement. It is understood that some announcements of vacancies are tentative, pending final course determinations and enrolment. Should rates stipulated in the collective agreement vary from rates stated in this posting, the rates stated in the collective agreement shall prevail.