Student Services & Resources 2015-2016

Registrar's Office – Faculty of Music

The Registrar's Office at the Faculty of Music is your "reliable first stop" for information and advice on academic, personal, and financial issues. The office is also responsible for the administrative operations of the undergraduate program including registrarial and computerized student records, course administration, convocation, examinations, marks and grade reporting, information on scholarships, bursaries, financial aid, as well as the policies on academic regulations. Academic as well as personal counseling is provided by the office, along with appropriate referrals to other services within the university.

Students having difficulties with a course should not hesitate to bring this to the attention of the instructor. The Divisional Coordinators are also available to provide additional assistance with academic problems. Students with complaints or problems relating to the teaching of courses, that they cannot resolve with the instructor concerned, can obtain advice from the Associate Dean or the Registrar.

Academic Success Centre

Lectures, workshops and individual consultations are offered on the reading of course material; exam preparation; coping with writer's blocks & writing and exam anxiety; note-taking; procrastination; motivation, concentration; memory strategies; time management; writing theses and comprehensive exams and other aspects of study. The ASC offers students the opportunity to walk-in for assistance in developing strategies for improving academic performance. Visit our website for walk-in hours, for information on booking individual appointments as well as dates and times of workshops and lectures. If your concerns involve academic difficulties then the learning skills program has many lectures on various aspects of study. Individual appointments for assistance with study problems can be arranged with our learning skills counselors. Koffler Student Services Centre, 214 College St, 1st floor

Accessibility Services: Programs and Services for Persons with a Disability

University Commitment: The University, in its statement of institutional purpose states: "The University of Toronto is dedicated to fostering an academic community in which the leaning and scholarship of every member may flourish with vigilant protection for individual human rights, and a resolute commitment to the principles of equal opportunity." The University will make every attempt to provide reasonable and appropriate accommodations to persons who have disabilities. Faculty and staff carry a responsibility for creating and maintaining an inclusive environment in their teaching and work settings and responding appropriately to requests for accommodation of a disability. Accessibility Services provides support and advice for faculty and staff regarding appropriate accommodations, information about disabilities, and community resources.

Responsibilities of Students who have Disabilities: Students who request accommodations for their academic programs and related activities at the University are obligated to disclose their disabilities to the respective campus Services for Students with Disabilities, and request accommodations in a timely manner to facilitate the implementation of support and services. It is vitally important that students discuss their needs as early as possible with the Service in order to put accommodations in place. Students must present relevant and up-to-date documentation, as outlined on the website, from an appropriate health care professional.

Support Services For Students: Accessibility Services provides services and programs for students with a documented disability, be it physical, sensory, a learning disability, or a mental health disorder. Students with a temporary disability (i.e. broken arm or leg) also qualify.

The service provides a wide range of support, including: accommodation advice; assessments (i.e. learning disability, adaptive technology); adaptive equipment; learning strategy support; test and examination accommodations; note-taking services; sign language interpreters; computer note-taking; scribes; attendant care; advice and information on disability issues; liaison with university faculty and staff and off-campus agencies.

Family Care Office

Many students balance family obligations with their studies. The University of Toronto is committed to fostering a family-friendly learning environment. The Family Care Office embraces an inclusive definition of family, and can assist students who require information on child care (facilities, programs, or subsidies), elder care, and other family matters. All services are free and confidential, and include:

- Information, guidance, referrals, educational programming, and advocacy for the University of Toronto community
- Family events, discussion, and support groups
- Workshops including “Choosing Child Care that Works for Your Family” and “Financial Survival for Student Families”
- A resource centre containing practical material on family issues

Health and Wellness Centre

Wellness refers to your overall physical, emotional, intellectual, spiritual and social condition, not simply the absence of illness. So when you’re not feeling your best, the friendly team at the Health and Wellness Centre offers a wide range of services to support you in achieving your personal and academic best.

The Health and Wellness Centre offers students the same services as a family doctor’s office and more. The Health and Wellness team includes family physicians, registered nurses, counsellors, psychiatrists, a dietitian, and support staff. They provide confidential, student-centred health care, including comprehensive medical care, immunization, sexual health care, counselling and referrals. Services are available to all full- and part-time students who possess a valid TCard and have health insurance coverage.

The Health and Wellness Centre Services:

- One Intake Office for Students’ Mental and Physical Healthcare Services
- Individual Psychotherapy and Pharmacotherapy
- General Practitioner Testing, Diagnosis and Medical Care
- Prescription and Documentation Services
- Assault Counselling & Education
- Academic Practicums and Internships
- Professional and Peer-led Events and Workshops

Centre for Community Partnerships

The Centre for Community Partnerships was founded to develop, with community organizations, partnerships that are defined, sustainable and action-oriented for students on all three University of Toronto campuses. These partnerships have a dual aim to build educational capacity within communities of the GTA and Peel regions, and to enhance and broaden student learning. Through the establishment of academic and co-curricular service opportunities, students enhance their learning of the social, cultural, ethical, and political dimensions of civic life.

Centre for International Experience (CIE) – The World Could Be Yours!

Faculty of Music students have the option of participating in the international and Canadian study abroad opportunities offered through the Centre for International Experience's Student Exchange Program. These exchanges allow students to experience new cultures and languages in an academic setting while earning credits towards the U of T degree. Exchanges may be for one term or a full year or summer, and most are open to both undergraduate and graduate students.

Cost: The cost of an exchange includes the U of T tuition plus incidental fees, along with the cost of living and studying abroad. While on exchange, students may still eligible to receive government assistance such as OSAP. CIE itself administers a needs-based bursary program.

Eligibility: In general, undergraduate or graduate U of T students who have completed at least one year of full-time studies, with a minimum CGPA of 2.25, are eligible to apply. Students must also achieve a minimum annual GPA of 2.5 for the year during which you apply. A few exchange programs do have higher GPA cutoffs, and others have special language requirements.

Application: Applications for most programs are due mid-January to late February, but you should always check the CIE website regarding the specific exchanges that interest you.

For more information, please contact the CIE: Cumberland House, 33 St. George St.

Telephone: (416) 978-2564 (General Enquiries); (416) 978-1800 (Student Exchange)

cie.information@utoronto.ca student.exchange@utoronto.ca www.cie.utoronto.ca

Note that students participating in an exchange through the Centre for International Experience will have their credits finalized for transfer upon return. However, students are strongly advised to at least have a preliminary assessment completed with the Registrar's Office, to minimize the risk of credits not transferring. Course outlines may be required, in addition to calendar descriptions to complete an assessment.

Students are eligible to participate in up to three terms of exchange.

Multi-Faith Centre for Spiritual Study and Practice

U of T's Multi-Faith Centre for Spiritual Study and Practice was created to provide a place for students, staff, and faculty of all spiritual beliefs to learn to respect and understand one another. The Centre facilitates an accepting environment where members of various communities can reflect, worship, contemplate, teach, read, study, celebrate, mourn, and share. The Centre is also home to the offices of the Campus Chaplains' Association and offers facilities, such as a main activity hall for large events, a mediation room with a "living wall" for quiet contemplation, meeting spaces and ablution rooms.

Office of the University Ombudsperson

The office of the Ombudsperson offers confidential advice and assistance to U of T students, staff, and faculty with complaints, unresolved through regular University channels. In handling a complaint, the Ombudsperson has access to all relevant files and information and to all appropriate University officials. The Ombudsperson handles all matters in strict confidence, unless the individual involved approves otherwise. The Ombudsperson is independent of all administrative structures of the University and is accountable only to Governing Council. The services of the Office are available by appointment at all three U of T campuses.

Sexual and Gender Diversity Office

The Sexual and Gender Diversity Office works with students, staff, and faculty to provide programs, services, education, resources, and outreach on issues related to sexual and gender identity at the University of Toronto. Our initiatives also focus on providing a positive learning and work environment for all that is free of discrimination and harassment. Any member of the University community is welcome to contact the office with concerns, complaints, issues, or ideas. Services are provided confidentially to anyone experiencing a problem related to heterosexism or homophobia, or who has questions, educational needs, or other related concerns.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is unwanted sexual attention & includes any unwelcome pressure for sexual favours, or any offensive emphasis on the sex or sexual orientation of another person which creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive working or learning environment. The Sexual Harassment Office deals with complaints under the University's Policy & Procedures: Sexual Harassment. The policy covers complaints of harassment based on sex or sexual orientation, sets out a formal resolution procedure & provides for mediation, counseling & public education. Members of the University may also contact the office on an informal basis for information or assistance in resolving an issue. Calls to the office & the complaints procedure itself are confidential. You can contact the office just for advice or information: you are not committing yourself to any formal process.

Responsibilities of the Sexual Harassment Office include: providing information & advice to all parties regarding sexual harassment complaints; acting as a non-partisan mediator in complaints; providing referrals to other offices & resources when appropriate; and initiating & conducting public education activities such as talks, workshops & the distribution of resource materials. ## Summer Abroad Program - Where will you be next summer?

Prepare yourself for a future in the global village by participating in one of the highly rated Faculty of Arts & Science Summer Abroad programs. These programs are designed to enrich students' academic lives by providing an exciting and educational international experience.

Courses: Students take specially designed University of Toronto undergraduate degree credit courses, relevant to the location, for a period of 3 to 6 weeks. The courses have field trips that complement and highlight the academic materials. Courses are taught predominantly by University of Toronto professors and, with the exception of language courses, are offered in English. Typically, full-year second and third year courses are offered in disciplines such as history, political science, management, literature, film, architecture, fine art, religion, and languages. The Science Abroad program allows students in various science disciplines to earn a full-year research credit while gaining laboratory experience overseas. Most courses do not have prerequisites.

All Summer Abroad courses and grades show on students' transcripts as regular U of T credits and are calculated into their CGPA.

Application: All University of Toronto students in good standing are eligible to apply. Students from other universities are also welcome to apply.

Applications are available in early January. The application deadline for selection-based programs is February 15; first-come, first-served programs are open until March 1, but spaces in some programs fill up well in advance. Late applications will be accepted if space and time permit.

Financial aid is available for most programs. The application deadline for awards offered through Woodsworth College is February 1.
